

Technology for Nonproliferation

Making the World a Safer Place

"The proliferation of nuclear, biological, and chemical weapons . . . and of the means of delivering such weapons, constitutes an unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security . . . and I hereby declare a national emergency to deal with that threat."

William J. Clinton, President of the United States

To address this threat, the Department of Energy's Office of Nonproliferation and National Security is working to

- Prevent the spread of weapons of mass destruction
- Detect proliferation activities worldwide
- Respond to detected proliferation activities and emergencies involving weapons of mass destruction

Rose E. Gottemoeller, Director Office of Nonproliferation and National Security

The U.S. Department of Energy, the Senate Proliferation Prevention Technology Working Group, and the House Bipartisan Nonproliferation Task Force

cordially invite you to

Technology for Nonproliferation

a Nonproliferation Technology Demonstration for the U.S. Congress

Monday, March 9, in the Cannon Caucus Room of the Cannon House Office Building

Wednesday, March 11, in Room SD-G50 of the Dirksen Senate Office Building

Welcoming Address – Monday, March 9, 10:00 A.M.

*Secretary of Energy Federico F. Peña
House Members*

Welcoming Address – Wednesday, March 11, 9:30 A.M.

*Secretary of Energy Federico F. Peña
Senate Members*

Doors are open from 9:00 A.M. to 6:00 P.M. both days
Reception begins at 5:00 P.M. both days

Questions, please call
Ed McGinnis 202-586-0645